

“Good Job Shelby! – This is a well produced podcast. One of the best that I have listened to. Good music, pleasant voices, and interesting guests. I especially enjoyed the interview with Charles Lowery. Keep up the good work Shelby Systems!”

~iTunes Customer Review

“The podcast sounds good and it really ministers. From the business side, I think it touches on the heart of what Shelby Systems does for the Body of Christ.”

~Tom Mann, Promotions Director - 3ABN Christian Television Network

“We were very pleased with the way the video podcast turned out.”

~Andrew Herdliska, Assistant to Pat Williams – Sr. VP of the NBA’s Orlando Magic

“Thank you for the iPod that I won from ShelbyPODCAST at ISC. I know the Bible says something about not coveting things, but I’ll admit that I wanted it bad. Generally, I get things when they are on their way to the antique shop so this was a real treat for me!”

~Darla Sheeley, Consultant – Dallas, TX

“It’s great to hear and know that this type of Christian resource is available!”

~Chad Wagstaff, Summer Grove Baptist Church – Shreveport, LA

“Great podcast!”

~Kathy Long, First Assembly of God – Fort Wayne, IN

“Thank you – enjoyed the show on the Podcast AND at ISC!”

~Karen Allen, Twin Cities Church – Grass Valley, CA

"I enjoyed The Swan's podcast. I attended the conference in Orlando, and enjoyed the banquet. I learned some things and am trying to use some of them. Thanks for the opportunity of attending the conference."

~Doris Windham, FBC Brandon, MS

"I just want you to know I enjoyed today's show."

~Mary Lee Piner, FBC Ocean Springs, MS

"Thanks for having "The Swan" on your podcast. My family loves him. He makes us laugh every time."

"Dennis Swanberg, holds a special place in our hearts for several reasons. We first heard him when he came to a church in our home town and we fell in love with him there as we could relate to so many of his stories. We bought several of his videos and many Swanberg quotes are often heard at our family gatherings."

"Years later, my brother, who is in the Army, had come home for 2 weeks leave from his tour in Iraq. Of course, it was very hard when the two weeks were up and we had to send him back. He was in an airport in Dallas having a very hard time after leaving all of his family and friends, when a civilian came up to him and put his hand on his shoulder and told him how much he appreciated him and his service to our country. When my brother turned to look at the man, he turned and looked into the face of Dennis Swanberg. He immediately said, "Your Dennis Swanberg and my family loves you." They had a short conversation there in the airport and Dennis told him he wanted to send him material and got his address. He did indeed stay in contact with my brother and sent him a package of goodies in Iraq with extras for him to share with his buddies. What a blessing that was to not only to my brother, but to his family. It was yet another reminder that God was in control and is able to use His people to bless and encourage each other in any circumstance. We are so thankful that Dennis let God use him that day as well as in the weeks that followed."

"I just had to share about the blessing "The Swan" has been to our family. I felt like he was great choice to use on your podcast."

~Dyan Stripling, A&M Church of Christ – College Station, TX

"Safe travels to Bill and his family!"

~Michele Tighe, Mount Calvary Lutheran Church – Excelsior, MN

"I always like to listen to Steve Hewitt!"

~Eddie Holeman, Southside Fellowship – Greenville, SC

*"To Don Alsup and the ShelbyMEDIA team.
Thanks so much for the iPod Nano...I love it."*

~Linda Bruner, Main Street UMC – Boonville, IN

"This was a great interview and I certainly enjoyed listening to it. Sam Samudio certainly has a story to tell. I really enjoy listening to stories about how someone has turned their life around and surrendered their life to the Lord."

"I felt that the interviewer Don Alsup did a really good job of interviewing Sam Samudio by asking very pertinent questions that the audience was interested in knowing about him."

~Brenda Coker, Raleigh Assembly of God - Memphis, TN

"I just listened to the podcast with Clay & Renee Crosse. What an amazing story. You think that someone has it all in control and to open up like they did. And, then to come to know God in a totally new way through all of that. God's word is true and his grace is everlasting. If you have not listened to the story of Clay and Renee Crosse, you really need to hear it."

"Thank you for sharing your story Clay and Renee. Thank you Shelby Systems for allowing us to hear that story."

~Tim Blankenship, James River Assembly - Springfield, MO

"I was referred to the latest edition of Shelby podcast by a friend, and I was grateful for the opportunity to hear the interview with Dr. Spradlin. Here in Memphis we're blessed with many churches that hold the Bible as the inerrant Word of God, and as local Christians we're all too likely to take great organizations like Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary for granted. That is a shame, because there are many seminaries and Bible Colleges around the world that do not hold the Scriptures in the high regard that Mid-America does. They teach the Bible as purely literature, or as a book with only some "historical significance," denying its truth and power to our world today. Leaving the guidance of God's Word, they espouse ideas and philosophies that are contrary to that in the revealed Scriptures."

"With such confusion being taught daily in many institutions across the globe, schools like Mid-America are a beacon of light, educating and informing a generation of ministers about divine truth revealed in the Bible that this world sorely needs. Giving Dr. Spradlin an opportunity to share with an audience he might otherwise not reach (through the Shelby podcast) was a great idea. Thank you!"
